- The lessons you child will miss.
- The difficulty they will have catching up.
- The effect it will have on how well they do at school.
- The school can refuse permission for you to take your child on holiday during term time.
- The school is not obliged to provide additional work or homework if you, as a parent, choose to take your child out of school during term time.

You do not have the right to take your child on holiday during the term time without the permission of the Headteacher and Governing Body

The school will consider the following before authorizing a holiday during term time or not:
